-VOLUME 16, NO. 22, MONDAY, JANUARY 31, 2000-

According to DPS Trooper Bobby Risch, 35-year-old Gene Austin Brown, of Dayton, was traveling southbound on Hwy 146 south of Dayton around 3:30 p.m. yesterday when, for unknown reasons, his car left the roadway, spun around, struck one or more trees and continued spinning. Trooper Risch said the man was not wearing a seatbelt and was apparently ejected from his car through the passenger window, landing on the road shoulder some 75 to 100 feet from his car. Mr. Brown was pronounced dead at the scene by Precinct #1 Justice of the Peace Bobby Rader, who has ordered an autopsy. Trooper Risch said alcohol may have contributed to causing the accident.

The deadline for Liberty County's switch to the new 9-3-6 area code has been pushed back to February 19th. According to information from the Texas Public Utilities Commission, the area code change was originally set for February 1st, but now callers using 4-0-9 or 9-3-6 will be able to get through with either from February 19th to August 5th. A map of the area code split is available at the web site www.texascode.com.

The Liberty City Council will meet in executive session tomorrow to discuss possible litigation pertaining to the city's protected zone, in which manufactured housing is prohibited. The matter of the protected zone arose at last week's council meeting when opponents of the proposed Clayton Manufactured Home Park on FM 563, indicated they would petition council to include the site of developer Lonnie Shiver's proposed subdivision in the protected zone. One opponent of the manufactured home park, FM 563 resident Jere Showalter, said about 200 people have already signed that petition.

Today is the last day for Liberty County residents to pay their property taxes without penalty. The tax offices at the Liberty County Courthouse and the Cleveland Courthouse Annex will be open until 6 p.m. today for those wishing to make payment.

FUNERALS: Steve Davis, 83, Services at 4 p.m. tomorrow at Allison Funeral Service in Liberty.  Glenda Joyce Jones, 50, Services at noon tomorrow at Allison Funeral Service in Liberty.
