-VOLUME 16 NO. 234, FRIDAY DEC. 01, 2000 -

Liberty County Sheriff's Captain Leroy Hanel said Ambrosio Solis, 70, of Cleveland was killed Wednesday when a vehicle he was working under, apparently fell on him. Captain Hanel said Mr. Solis was repairing the vehicle of a friend, Elorsa Cruz at her home near Plum Grove. Ms. Cruz said she had returned home after noon to find the vehicle fallen from it's support blocks with Mr. Solis pinned underneath it. Precinct #5 Justice of the Peace Burl Thomas ruled the death as accidental.

A recent study of comparable electrical rates in Texas show efforts by the Liberty City Council, Mayor Bruce Halstead and the Sam Rayburn Municipal Power Agency Board reflect a positive effect on Liberty's electrical rates. Whereas many power companies have increased their rates, Liberty's electric rates have decreased almost 10% in the last two years.

The Liberty-Dayton Area Chamber of Commerce will sponsor an old-fashioned farmer's market called "La Bahia Market" on the Liberty County Courthouse Square each Saturday from 8 a.m. to noon beginning December 9th and continuing through March 10th. Visitors will be able to buy homemade breads, jellies, pies, homegrown vegetables, fruits, handmade crafts and knick-knacks and much more. For more information on the La Bahia Market, call the Chamber Office at 936-336-5736.

Last Saturday, several Liberty High School Band members made the All-Region Honor Band. Kendall Angelle, Lenora Claus, Misty Earnest, Alexis Kniesley, Terry Lafleur, Philip Partlow, Stefanie Reiner, Sean Smith, Ben Takach, Tim Takach, Krystie Taylor, Travis Wilde, Glen Zamazal and Ebone Zeno will all participate in the honor band's performance on January 27th at Stephen F. Austin High School in Port Arthur.

The Youth Waterfowl Expo 2000 is Saturday from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. at the Anahuac National Wildlife Refuge. Kids will have a chance to learn hunter safety, dog training, duck calling, water bird identification and wetland ecology. Prizes will be awarded, including 75 guided hunts on the refuge to youths age 9 to 17. For more information, call the Anahuac Refuge at 267-3337.
